FACULTY

The priests of Trenton Catholic are those who tread in the shadow of their patron, St. Francis. In his fashion they have renounced worldly ideals to pursue the life of sacrifice—laboring to relate to us, the students, the knowledge and principles of saints and scholars.

For years they have labored in His vineyard, preaching and teaching the word of God to generations of young men who leave the shelter of parents and face a pagan world on their own. The thousands of successful graduates are ample testimony to the success of their efforts.

Ever mindful of the Rule of Life of the Friars Minor ". . . living in obedience, without property, and in chastity . . ." they dedicate their lives to sanctity and learning. They are living their Rule well—they in whom the Father has placed His trust.

SENIORS

As Seniors we now think of two aspects of our lives—what we have done, and what we are about to do. The little we have done we owe largely to others. We cannot truly estimate what we owe our parents and teachers who have combined their efforts to give us a Catholic education. They have helped expand our qualities and further our knowledge. They have developed our intellects and strengthened our wills. Now we bravely face the world ever mindful of the Christian principles which have been instilled in us here at Trenton Catholic. As we scatter throughout the nation we shall always show the influence of our Catholic training. Our moral strength will be subject to severe tests in the future, but tempered by the Catholic education we have received we are equipped to pass them successfully. The valuable knowledge imparted to us in secular subjects has given us good reason to feel assured that we are prepared to take our place in society and in our particular vocation. To all who have helped us—our sincere thanks.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Forming the major part of the student body are the undergraduates. In each year there is the goal of attaining the highest level of education. Some day too they will be seniors, gaining the prestige that accompanies that elevated group.

But for now they must labor to prove themselves worthy of becoming seniors. It is their duty to learn and practice the principles which they are being taught, to study and experiment, and to follow the examples being set for them by the seniors. They in turn have been fashioned by the Franciscans who stress attention to the individual personality.

As the undergraduates advance in knowledge and experience we pray they may some day do honor to God and to themselves under the beneficent influence of Saint Francis, the "man of Assisi."

SPORTS

"A sound mind in a sound body"—a statement reflected often by men of importance. At Trenton Catholic athletics reach a pinnacle which is seldom matched in any secondary school. Its athletic prowess is well known in New Jersey and its teams have captured myriad state and sectional championships. Under the watchful eye of experienced coaches and teachers, many of whom serve as priests of God, Catholic athletes form and flourish, reaching the highest ideals of Christian sportsmanship. Spirit runs high at Trenton Catholic and none of the school's teams ever lack the backing of ardent fans. Anyone who has ever seen a Trenton Catholic football game or visited the school gym for a basketball game can attest to this fact. This year's fortunes on athletic fields brought added laurels to Trenton Catholic and deserved congratulations to the school's athletes and coaches.

The fall sports calendar opens and "King Football" takes over at Trenton Catholic. The cheers of the crowd herald the new season and expectation runs high. Through the year the team reached great heights posting an impressive five-win three-loss log. Among their laurels was the county championship as well as a smashing victory over arch-rival Trenton High. The team was recognized as one of the finest of recent years at Trenton Catholic.

The Junior Varsity and Freshman teams also upheld the honor of T.C., giving evidence of a bright future on the gridiron.

Coach Petruccio and his staff tried not only to build a winning team but to build character and enrich his players with the spirit of Trenton Catholic.

Through the years we have always been proud of our athletic teams and this year's football team kept this standard high. All of the students will remember the season as one of the most successful.

Under the capable direction of Messrs. Edward Smolinski and Stanley Patykula, Trenton Catholic's Varsity Soccer team enjoyed its most successful season in recent years, compiling a fine 9-4-2 record. The highlight of the campaign came when the Golden Wave captured the Class A State Championship from St. Cecilia's of Kearney in a playoff series. Important victories were also registered over arch-rivals Trenton High and Hamilton. The Junior Varsity showed excellent potential for the future in registering numerous victories over stiff competition.

The popularity of soccer is definitely on the upswing as is evidenced by the increasingly large attendance at the games. Because of its fast-moving action, soccer is not only an exciting game to play, but is an interesting spectator sport as well. With an abundance of talent on hand, Trenton Catholic soccer is at the peak of one of its greatest eras.

No one has to ask a Trenton Catholic student, "What kind of team did you have this year? Any-one who follows basketball at all in the area or state would know. Only a two-point deficit in overtime marred an otherwise perfect season for regular play. In state tournament competition too the Wave easily swept the South Jersey crown, bowing in the finals to a stubborn St. Peter's quintet from Jersey City.

A well-balanced attack and smooth defense would probably best summarize the '58-'59 varsity version of Trenton Catholic basketball. In fact, three of the first five won places on the all-city quintet. In the Eastern States Catholic Invitational Tournament at Newport, Rhode Island, the Wave courtsters found themselves in the final round pitted against the tall and talented John Carroll array from Washington, D.C. Again two points made the difference as Catholic roared from behind, but time ran out and the Wave dropped it 67-65.

All in all, a tremendous season for Trenton Catholic with a definite promise for a brilliant campaign next season.

JUNIOR VARSITY

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's Junior Varsity team has continued in the tradition of Trenton Catholic basketball by chalking up another impressive record. Also under the capable guidance of Fr. Clarence, they lost but two games in their seventeen outings to date. With the loss of three starting lettermen, next year's Varsity will depend highly upon the ability of this impressive team, and right now, things are very bright.

FROSH BASKETBALL

Completing his second year as coach of the Wave yearlings, Father Leslie again has produced a fine ball club. Displaying a hustling attack typical of Trenton Catholic teams, the Wave Frosh recorded numerous victories including a triumph over new rival, Notre Dame while dropping but five contests in all. Continuous drilling in the basic fundamentals of the game is the principal idea behind the Freshman team, insuring good material for coming years at Trenton Catholic.

Even the Freshman know how it's done.

GOLF

As the first warm days of spring roll around, the golfing season once again gets under way and Trenton Catholic's linksmen head for the local courses to begin practice. The squad receives expert guidance and instruction under the competent coaching of Father Gregory. The team as in previous years again faces some tough opposition but with the help of five returning lettermen they should prove to be one of the powers in the area.

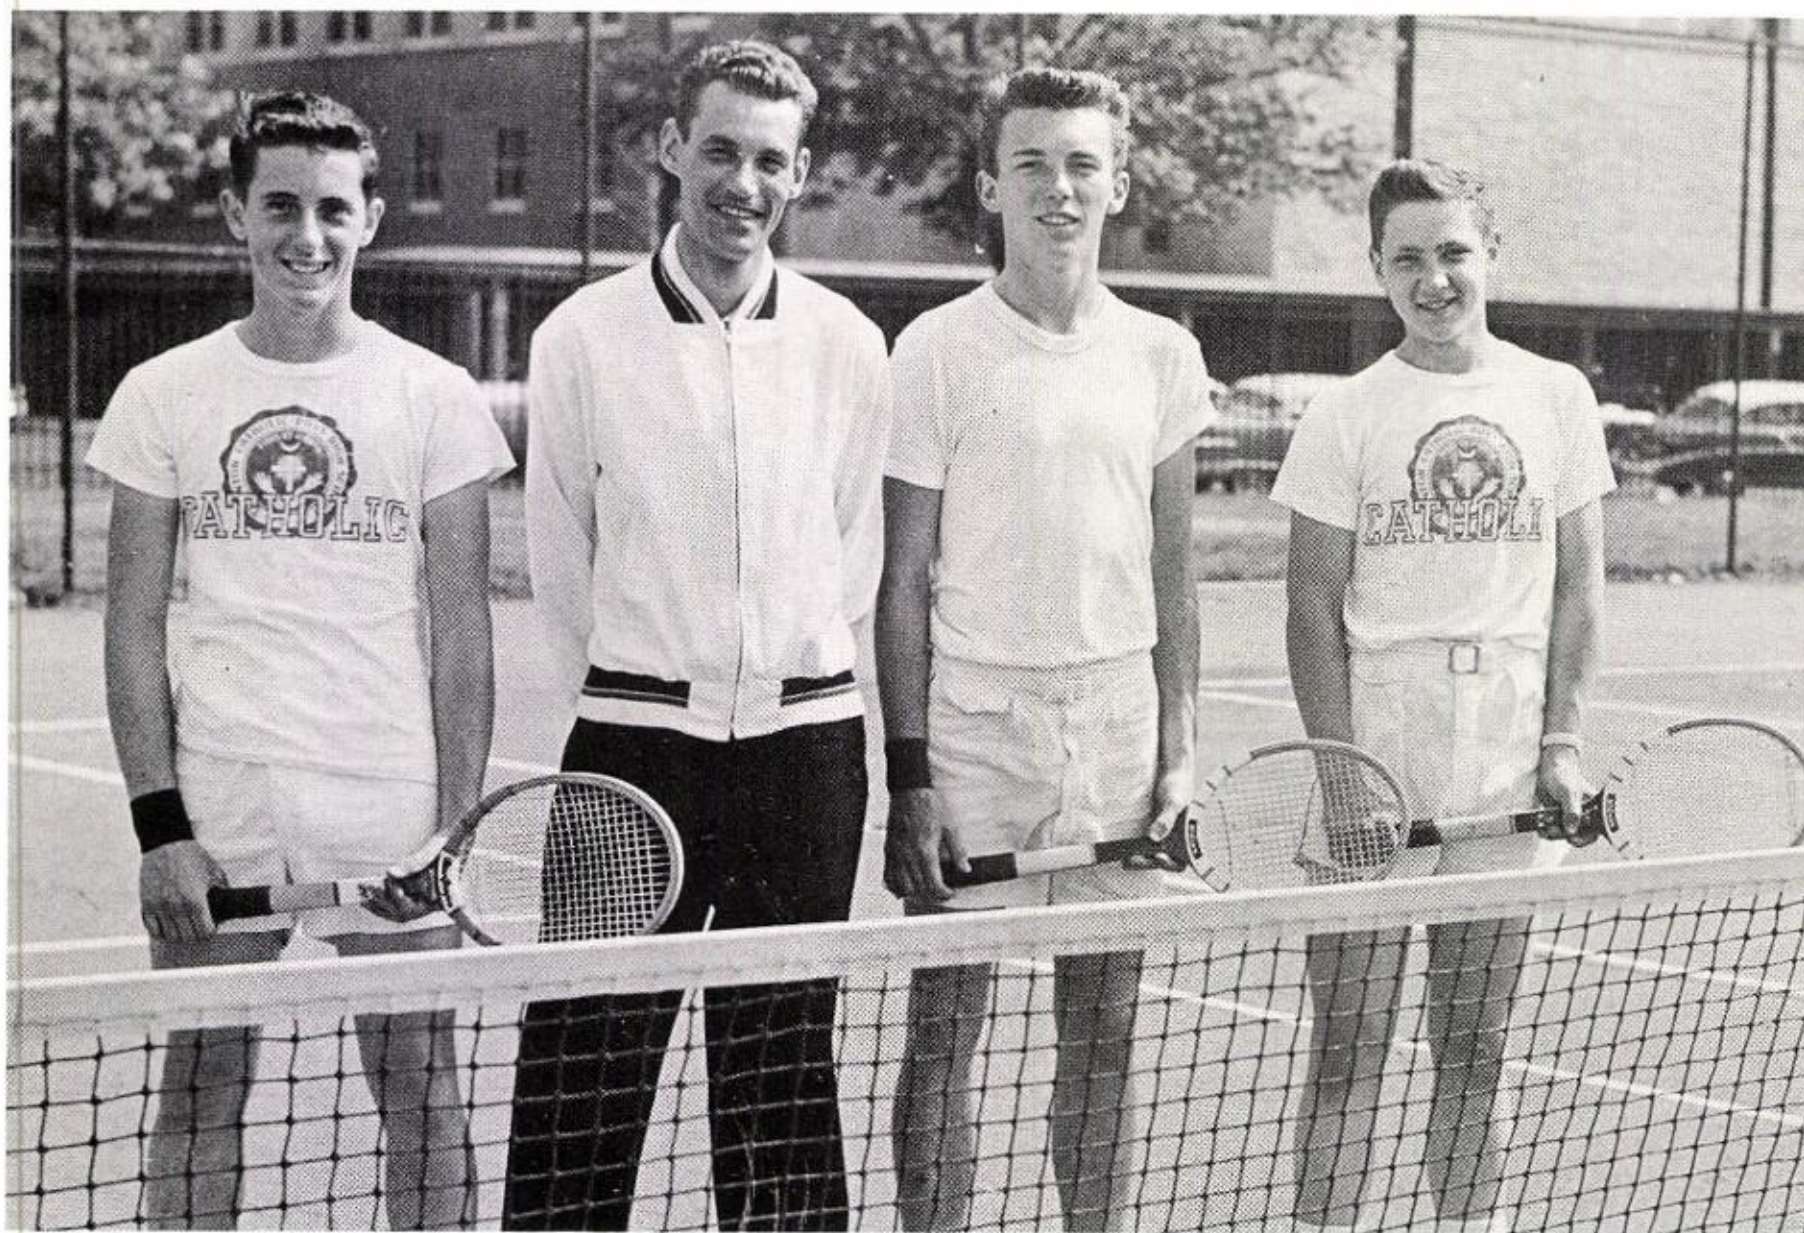

Practice make perfect, hence to the driving range.

TENNIS

The traditional spirit at Trenton Catholic has always been that of a winner. The tennis team, under the capable direction of Fr. Leslie, is eager to comply with this tradition. Last year's record was not too good, but with a year behind them, the members are now looking forward to a victorious season. No longer handicapped by inexperience, this year's matches promise to provide plenty of action for the eager tennis enthusiasts. Once again Trenton Catholic will step onto the court with this traditional spirit of friendly competition, and this year they are confident of a good season.

H. Kramer counters his opponent with a blistering forearm smash.

BASEBALL

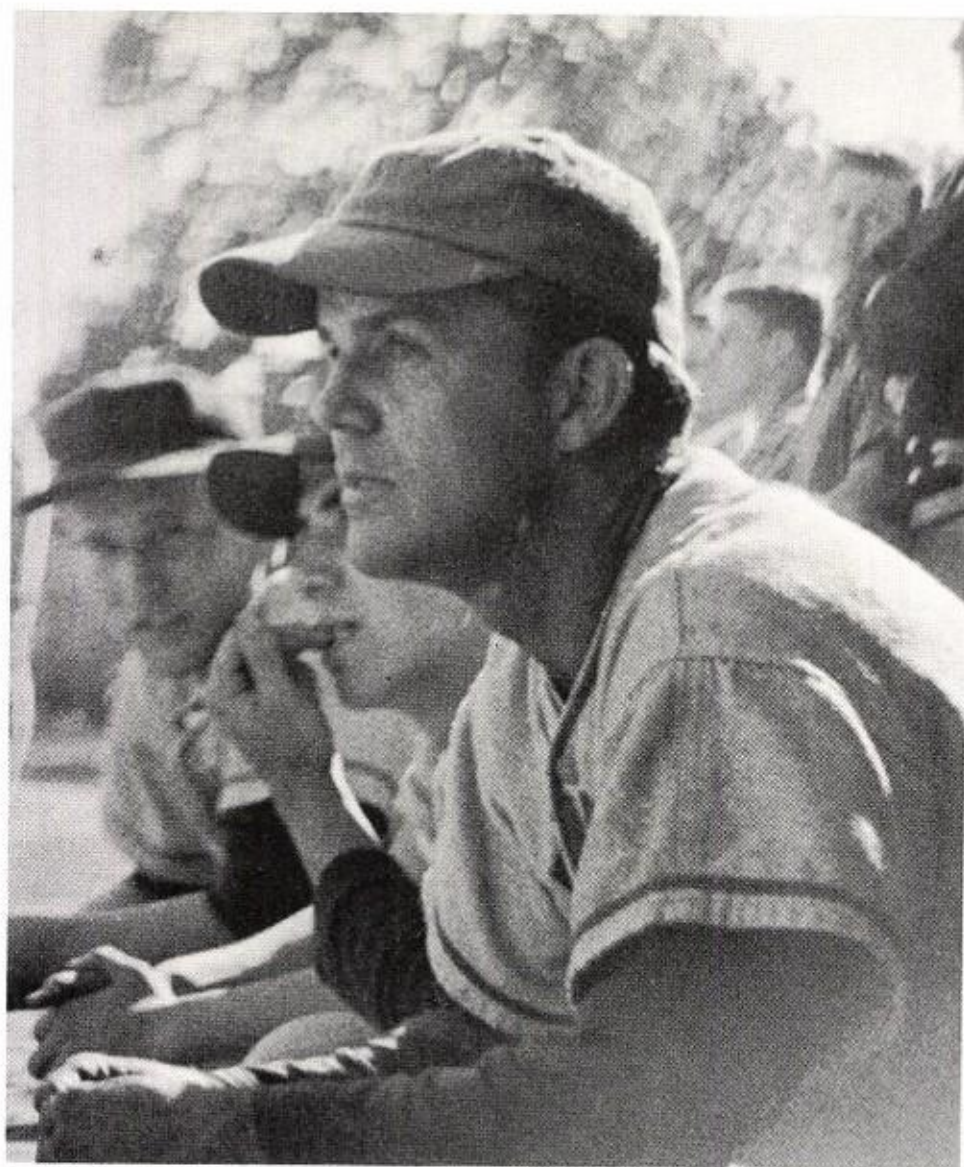

This year's returning lettermen:

FIRST ROW: J. Cyborski, A. Caesaro, L. Murphy, A. Manto, N. Werkman. SECOND ROW: N. Armenti, R. Lopilato, A. Offredo, R. Alu, N. Serban, C. Henry, Coach Malone. THIRD ROW: A. Timko, K. Sokolowski, T. Kaczor, A. Nitti, G. Gray.

The thump of the fist in the glove, the crack of the bat, the umpire shouting "Play Ball", are signs that once more our "national pastime" has arrived at Trenton Catholic.

Again under the leadership of Mr. George Malone, we are once more well represented on the diamond.

With the exception two, the entire varsity squad will be returning and combined with the upcoming talent from the underclassmen should enjoy a winning season.

CHEERLEADERS

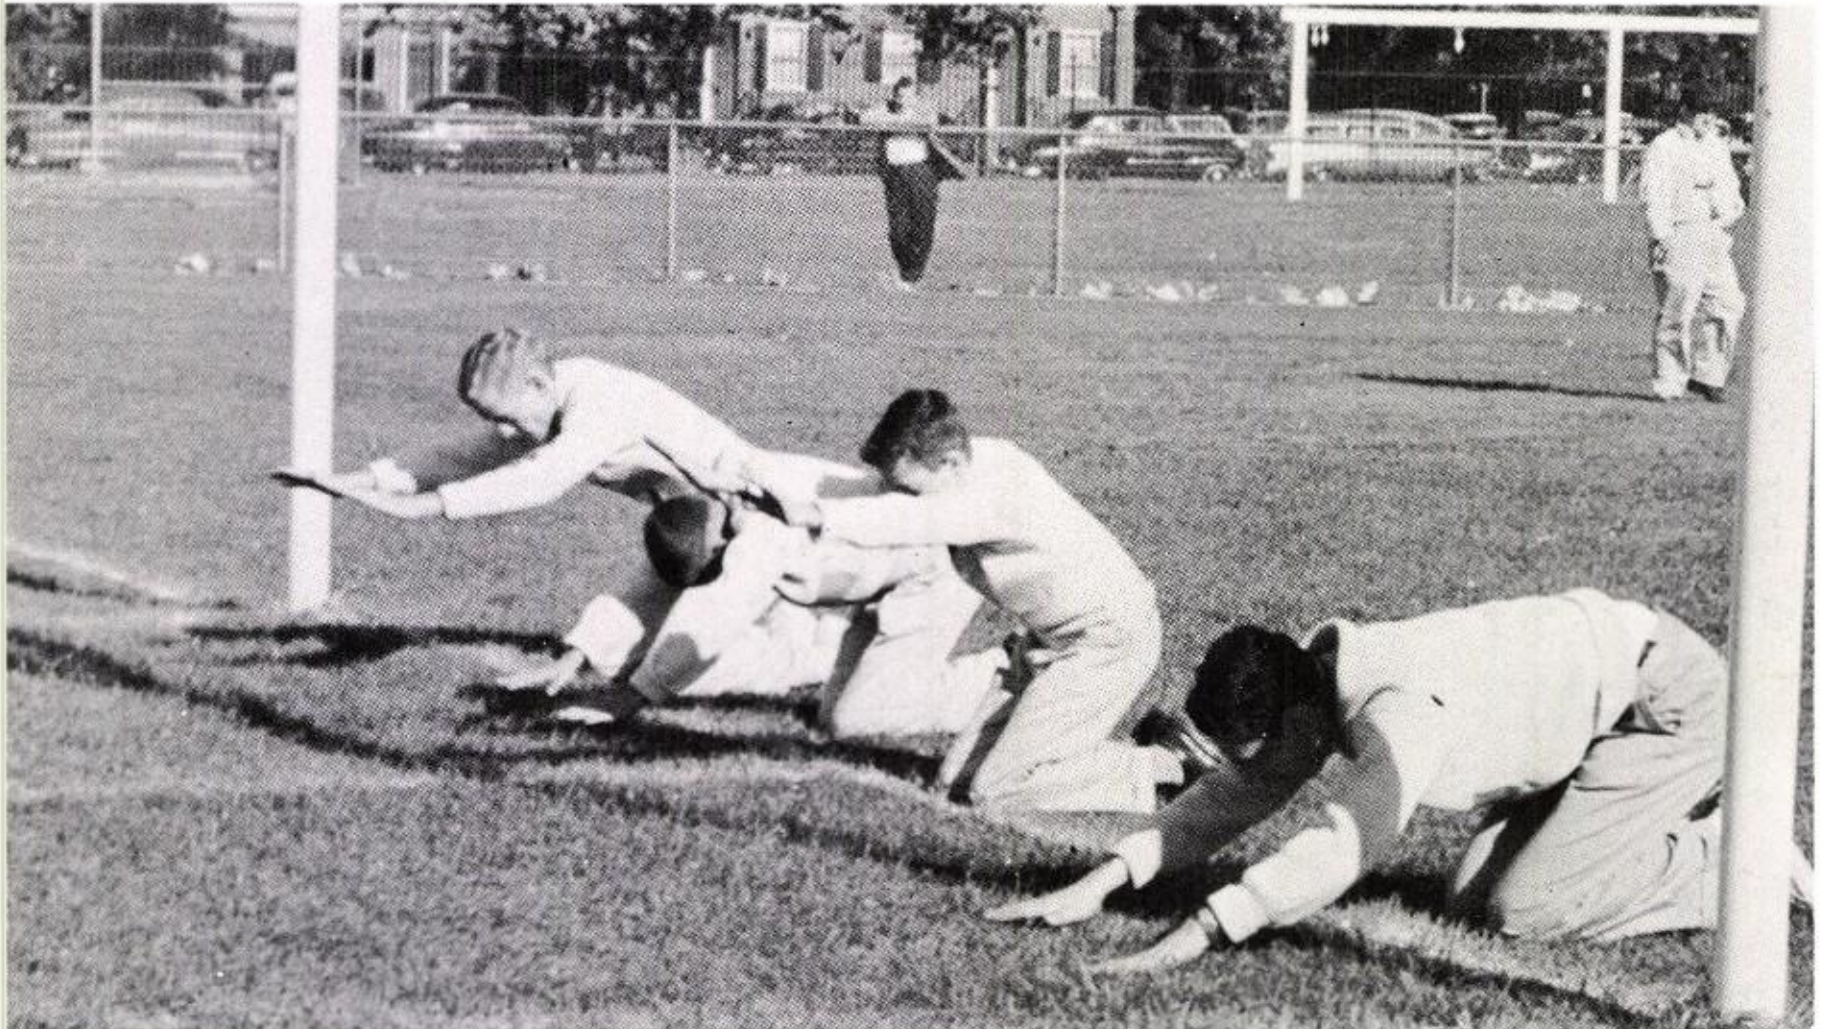

Cheerleaders gather for instructions from their captain, T. Donahue.

The support of the student body in reference to the backing of their teams could be the determining factor in the winning or the losing of a game. The responsibility of rallying the support out of the attending spectators rests upon the cheerleaders. For the third consecutive year under Tom Donahue, the cheerleaders have done well in arousing this enthusiasm. In the gymnasium they create an atmosphere of winning even before the actual playing of the game and have turned the tide on perhaps more occasions than the public has realized. Reliable and dependable, that's our cheerleading squad.

T. Donahue points the way to victory.

ACTIVITIES

Certainly important complements to any school are its extra-curricular activities. These programs are designed to provide the student with a means of rounding out his school life. Here at Trenton Catholic the organizations and clubs are indeed numerous. They enable the student to foster his spiritual as well as his mental and physical development. Activities range from the Third Order of Saint Francis to the Senior Trip and include a wide variety of interests. They also administer valuable aid in character building which is an essential part of any school program. These societies are interwoven with the school curriculum and give the student a way to gain a further knowledge in his subject of interest. Some clubs suggest to the student the virtue of helping others through charity or another may provide him with entertainment. All these facts amply demonstrate that the activities program of Trenton Catholic is absolutely necessary for a complete development of the student.

THIRD ORDER OF ST. FRANCIS

The Third Order of Saint Francis is one organization that was not originated at Trenton Catholic. It is an order that was founded by Saint Francis in the 13th century. Its purpose is the sanctification of human souls. It is a lay organization for people who do not wish to enter the religious life but who want to gain great indulgences for themselves and others. The tertiaries, as they are called upon entering the Order, have a probation period called the novitiate that lasts for a year and a day. After that members may discontinue or they may go on to profess themselves by the Rule of the Order. By this Rule they promise to observe the Commandments of God and the Church. They must also wear a cord and scapular as a sign of the Order. The Third Order does not make us do anything out of the ordinary, it only asks that we live as Catholics should.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an able body of chosen representatives elected by the students themselves. Under the leadership of Father Gregory, it brings about better relations between the student body and the members of the faculty. Also on their agenda is the task of bringing about a closer bond between Trenton Catholic and the other schools in the area.

On their enormous list of activities are our pre-game pep rallies, our poster contests, and of course, the ever popular Socials. These are only a few of the many extra activities which the Student Council sponsors.

The voice of the student at Trenton Catholic, this organization will always have a place in the democratic system of the school.

The fact that Trenton Catholic's yearbook is annually awarded many honors must induce some curiosity as to how this is accomplished. This question is answered by the hard work put forth by a dedicated group of seniors. Under the capable leadership of their moderator, Father Angelus, they strive to produce a book worthy of Trenton Catholic and the title "Immaculata." A task such as this is year-long and almost daily. There are many individual assignments with great responsibility involved. Collecting and sorting ads, pictures and the tremendous amount of information needed is but a small part of the work to be accomplished. Many talents are needed. If "it takes all kinds of people to make a world", the same is true for a yearbook. The editorial staff is aided by Father Severin supplying the many pictures and Father Gregory the necessary finances through the ad campaign. All of these individuals working as a team again assures us of a competent award-winning yearbook.

GOLDEN WAVE

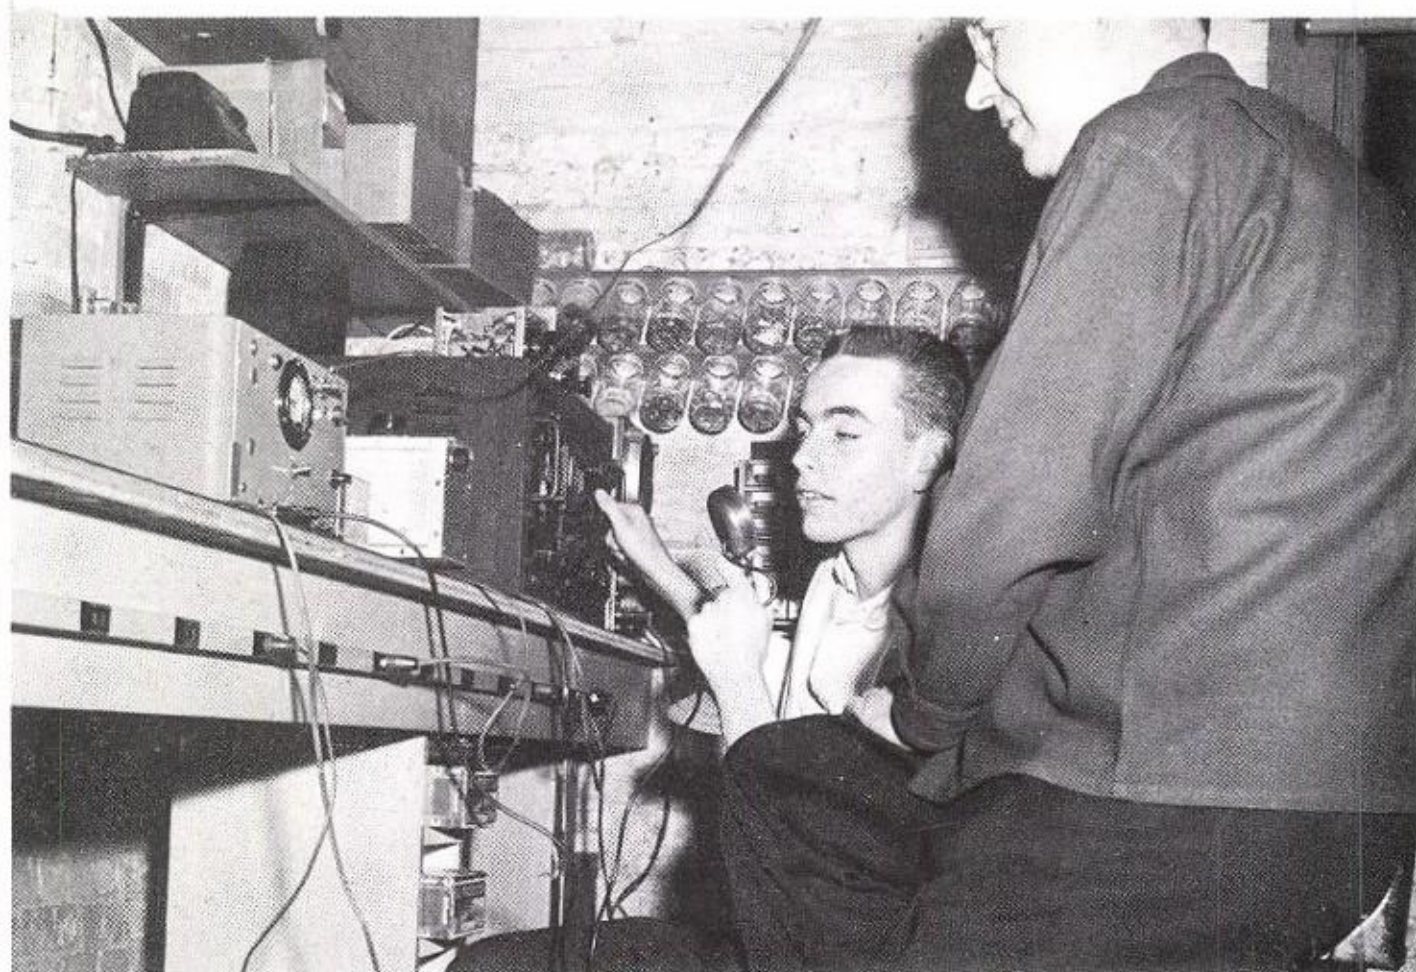

Reporting the news and giving timely views on current events, the Golden Wave works to encourage the active participation of every Trenton Catholic Student in Catholic Action. To bring about one hundred per cent co-operation and good will from the student body for every school-sponsored activity, the paper keeps the student informed on every important event. This year the "Wave" added cartoons to depict the humorous side of typical school scenes and situations. The warm reception of each issue gives the newspaper staff ample payment for the great effort it puts into producing the Golden Wave.

RADIO CLUB

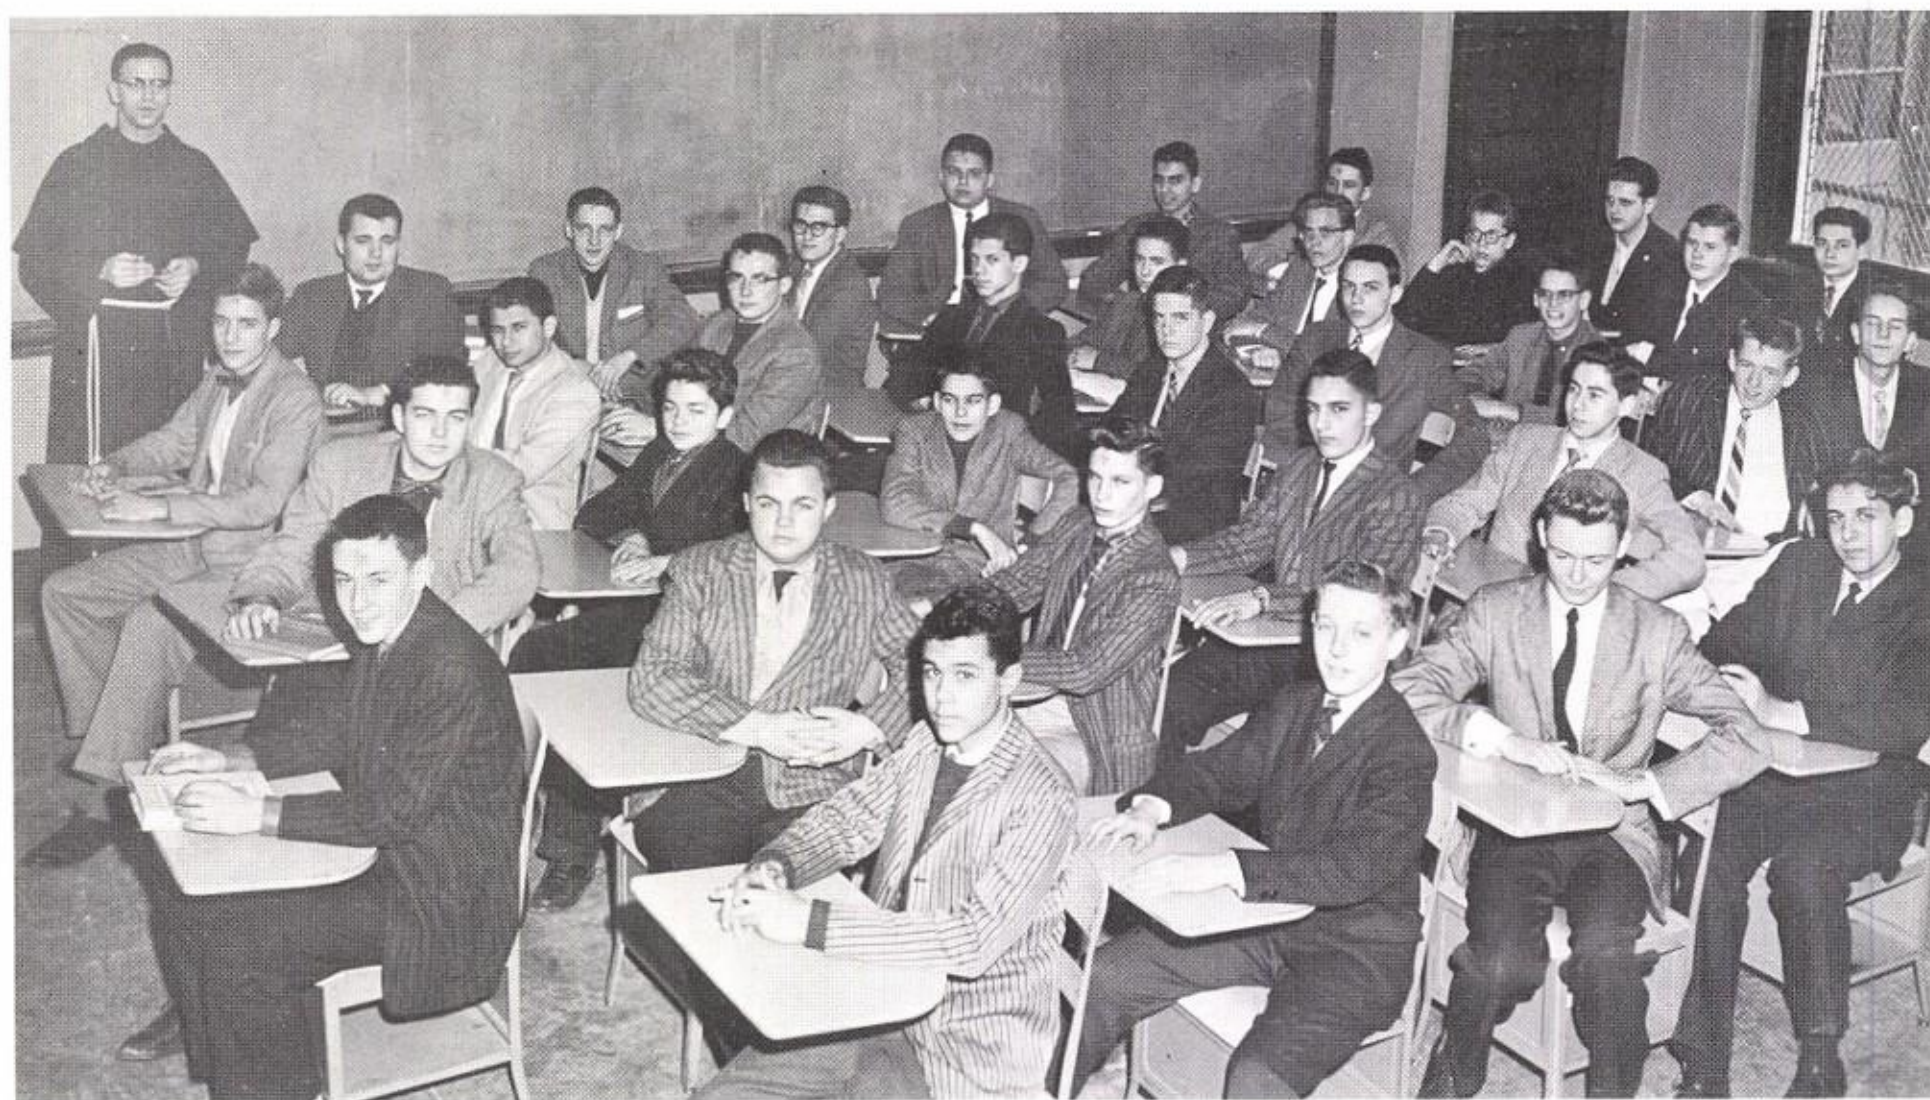

A steadily expanding field in the world today is that of electronics. Students of Trenton Catholic have a chance to gain practical experience in this line through the facilities of the Radio Club. During the year each member completes a project which may include anything from radio to television. This year the club has had a large number of licensed radio operators. Under Father Claude's direction it has added another fruitful year to its existence and is a further complement to the activities offered at Trenton Catholic.

Radio Club members work on their various projects.

FORUM CLUB

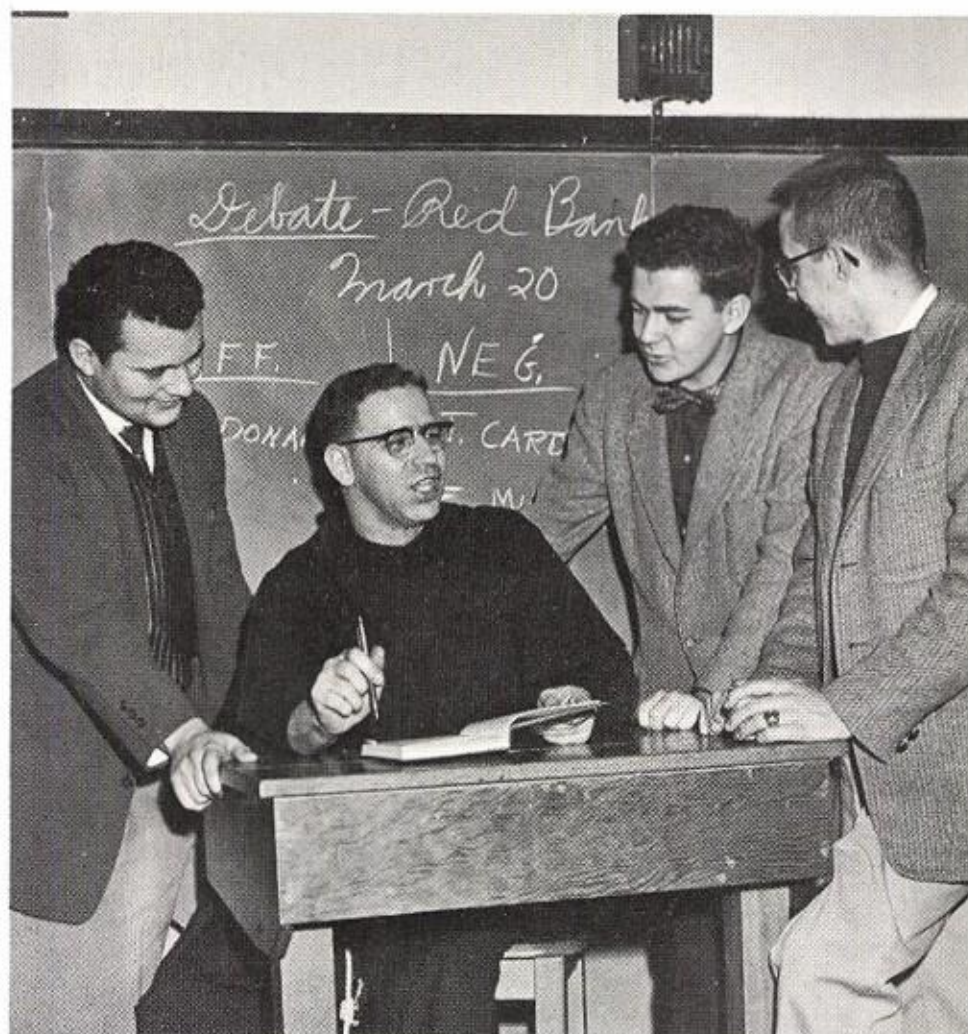

The primary purpose of education is to form a well-rounded, complete man. A man who can not convey his thoughts to his fellow-men is not a complete individual. At Trenton Catholic this important aspect of training is offered to the student through the Forum Club. Here members gain experience in the various types of public speaking by competition with students from other schools in the National Forensic League. The debate team travels extensively to N.F.L. tournaments sponsored by universities located all along the eastern seaboard. Also in extemporaneous speaking, original oratory and dramatic interpretation Trenton Catholic students enter statewide contests. With the great influx of members this year, our Forum Club is very likely to win the leading chapter award for New Jersey.

One of the most popular extracurricular activities in the school is the Camera Club. With Father Severin as its moderator, this club has the responsibility of furnishing the pictures used in the Golden Wave and in the Immaculata. Teaching the club members to take, develop and print their own pictures is only the fundamental training which could be obtained through the Camera Club. The more advanced students are taught the technical aspects of the camera and of the problems which could occur in picture-taking. The lessons that Father Severin gives are not only interesting but may help a student should he make it his profession in life.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is a member of the Junior Classical League. It joins with other members in various social activities. Under the guidance of Father Innocent it has strived to fulfill its purpose—to promote the study of Latin and the culture of the Roman Empire. During the winter the Latin Club held the annual Roman festival. The feature of the festival was a satire of some of the classes here at Trenton Catholic. In the spring delegates from Trenton Catholic attended the convention of the varied Latin clubs throughout the state. The Latin Club is another society characteristic of Trenton Catholic's aim to broaden the student's cultural appreciation.

FATHERS' CLUB

The object of this organization is to promote good fellowship, understanding and advancement of Trenton Catholic by the fathers or guardians of all boys attending the school and to lend both spiritual and material assistance to the faculty. For these ends the club has sponsored many worthwhile activities this year.

Among the projects started to raise money for student scholarships was a series of lectures given by experts in different fields. This series was well-received both by the fathers and their sons.

On the spiritual side the fathers sponsored a Day of Spiritual Recollection during Lent which was well attended. In all the various projects and activities of the club, the fathers have worked together in a spirit of friendly co-operation to make this second year under Fr. Armand one of its most successful.

P. T. A.

Perhaps the largest and most active organization in the school is the Parent-Teacher Association. Under the direction of Father Robert, this organization brings about a closer union between the faculty and the parents of the students.

On the first Wednesday after the termination of the marking period, parents meet with the different teachers of the school to discuss their son's scholastic progress.

On the agenda of the P. T. A. are the weekly Bingo, the annual Fashion Show and the annual Christmas Party for the members of the faculty.

Fr. Casimir introduces the various college representatives to the assemblage of parents and students.

COLLEGE NIGHT

Many of the students now attending Trenton Catholic have the desire to further their education after high school. Father Robert's sincere desire is that this is done in a Catholic college. To help Junior and Senior students make this important decision, Father Casimir, the head of the Guidance Department, has organized an annual College Night. On the appointed date students and their parents gather together in the gymnasium where Father Robert and Father Casimir introduce the representatives from approximately fifteen Catholic colleges of the area. Then the assembly adjourns to various rooms where there is a detailed talk given and questions answered. Individual attention is stressed. The senior class sincerely thanks Father Casimir for the opportunity to personally meet with these representatives and for his graciously offered guidance and advice.

Particular attention is stressed as Fr. John Schneider, S.J. explains a fine point to two prospective collegians.

Fr. Robert blesses the catafalque during absolution following the Mass.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

This being a Catholic high school, the students as young Catholic men have an obligation in charity to remember deceased former students. Therefore every year soon after school commences a special Memorial Mass is celebrated in their honor. The entire student body attends and offers its prayers for these that have given their lives so that we may live in a free land. After the Holy Sacrifice is completed, Father Robert speaks the words of absolution and the roll call is read aloud. Trenton Catholic will always remember her departed sons, praying that God may give them eternal rest.

SOCIAL CLUB

The Trenton Catholic Social Club is certainly the most popular club in school. Dances throughout the year provide an excellent opportunity for Catholic boys and girls to get better acquainted. The dances are generally called "Socials" by those who attend. Under the moderation of Father Emmett and President David Murphy the Executive Committee strives to provide a night of fun and entertainment for all. The dances are also attended by students of Cathedral High, Villa Victoria Academy, and Notre Dame High. Guest "disc-jockeys" sometimes emcee the night or "live" bands are featured. On one occasion popular singers honored us by giving their time and talent to provide a night of complete entertainment to a capacity crowd.

May the Trenton Catholic Social Club always be as popular and successful as it has been this year.

JOHN CARROLL SOCIETY

The John Carroll Society, although only in its second year at Trenton Catholic, has proved itself a club of major interest among the students. The aim of the club is to aid the student in understanding Christian principles in relation to current events. Father Justus, the moderator, arranges monthly discussions at which time learned persons are guest panelists. The topics have to do with problems found in the American Democracy.

MOTHER-SON COMMUNION BREAKFAST

An annual event at Trenton Catholic is the Mother-Son Communion Breakfast. At this time the students escort their mothers to Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception and then to the school cafeteria. Here in the cafeteria everyone is treated to a fine breakfast followed by an address on a timely topic. The featured speaker for this year was Father Conall O.F.M. Conv. As in previous years the Breakfast was met with great success.

MUSIC

The Music Department at Trenton Catholic is divided into three parts—the Band, the Orchestra and the Student Choir.

The first of these, the Band, makes its initial appearance of the year at the football games where it entertains the spectators during the game. From the Marching Band there is chosen a small group of boys to make up a relatively new, but very important organization, the Dance Band, which entertains the student body during the pep rallies. Both of these bands are under the direction of Father Charles and Mr. Mayer.

The Orchestra and Student Choir, although making fewer appearances, are just as important to the school. The big day for the Orchestra is the graduation exercises at which time they render fitting musical selections. This traditional organization at T.C. is under the expert direction of Mr. Mayer.

The Student Choir under the leadership of Father Innocent sings the annual Memorial Mass as well as at various other times during the academic year.

JUNIOR PROM

Annually, on the eve of Ascension Thursday, the Junior Prom, highlight of the Trenton Catholic social season, is held. The senior class, as guests of the juniors, dance into the late hours of the night to the music of a well-known band and enjoy refreshments graciously served by junior and senior mothers. As this is the last of the major social events in which the graduating class participates, it is always anxiously awaited and long remembered.

SENIOR TRIP

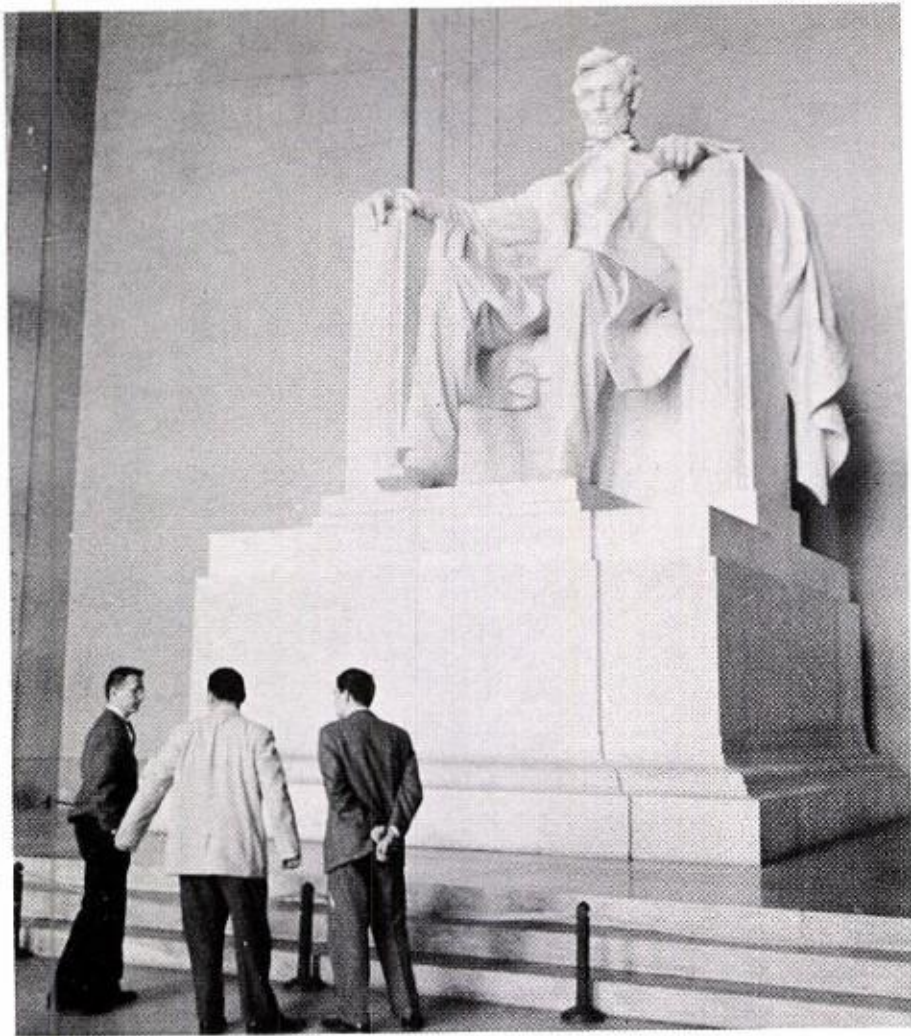

A much anticipated highlight of the Senior year is the annual journey to our nation's capital. It marks one of the final times when the senior class is together as a body.

Here for four days the Seniors tour the seat of our nation, the center of liberty in the free world. Chaperoned by the good Fathers the visits to the institutions, museums, and the other places of high interest consume the greater part of the time spent in the shadows of our glorious heritage.

The busses will be waiting and restless feet will climb aboard and look forward to a truly wondrous trip that will long be remembered as part of our association with the school days that in a few months will be only a pleasant memory.

We stop on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial to look at the wondrous scenes about us.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Along with the sports, clubs, dances, etc. which round out the year at Trenton Catholic, there are also those events which may happen every year along with those which take place only once in a while. All these activities could not be given separate sections; therefore they are reproduced on these two pages. Some of these are social and some are religious. Some are designed especially for the parents and some for the students.

The outsider who might see a group of unrelated photographs in one small section might feel that these were uneventful and not very important, but to those who took part in them they will be remembered just as long as the victories over Trenton High, the Junior Prom and the Senior Trip.
